

Dr. Eman Behery Ahmed Behery

Areas of Specialization: Finance, Corporate Finance, Financial Markets, Investment Analysis

Professional Summary

Ph.D. in Business Administration (Finance) with over eight years of university teaching experience. Research interests focus on corporate finance, investment and financing decisions, market valuation, and financial behavior in emerging markets. Published research examines venture capital performance, investor behavior, and pricing dynamics in developing economies. Experienced in teaching undergraduate and postgraduate courses and supervising academic research within accredited higher education institutions.

Teaching Experience

- Financial Management
- Investment Analysis
- Risk Management
- Strategic Management
- Business Administration
- Operations Management
- Human Resource Management
- Business Ethics and Governance
- Marketing Management

- E-Marketing (Digital Marketing)
- Risk and Crisis Management
- Business Administration and Digital Transformation
- Financial Risk Management
- Project Management
- Artificial Intelligence in Management

Research Interests

- Corporate Finance
- Investment and Financing Decisions
- Venture Capital and Entrepreneurial Finance
- Behavioral Finance and Individual Investors
- Firm Valuation and Market Efficiency
- Financial Markets in Emerging Economies
- Banking and Financial Intermediation
- Financial Technology (FinTech) and Digital Transformation in Financial Services
- Pricing Strategies and Market Valuation